

New York's Responsible Play Partnership brings groundbreaking problem gambling awareness series to Sullivan County

LOCH SHELDRAKE, NY - New York's Responsible Play Partnership, which consists of the NYS Gaming Commission, NYS Office of Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Services (OASAS) and the New York Council on Problem Gambling (the Council), is bringing regional gaming operators and problem gambling service providers together for the first time to discuss the issues and opportunities that lie ahead given the State's changing gambling landscape.

The free "Let's Start the Conversation" event will feature remarks from representatives of the Gaming Commission, OASAS and the Council as well as representatives from Montreign Resort Casino.

The event will also provide gaming operators and problem gambling providers an opportunity to showcase their responsible gaming programs and services.

- Who: New York's Lottery, video lottery, horse racing, harness racing and commercial casino operators meet with problem gambling prevention, treatment and referral professionals to talk about expanded gaming in New York.
- What: "Let's Start the Conversation" problem gambling awareness series.
- When: Friday, September 18, 2015 at 10:00 a.m.
- Where: Sullivan County Community College
Grossinger Dining Room (Located in Building H)
112 College Road – Office J116C
Loch Sheldrake, NY 12579
Click HERE for a campus map
- Note: For directions call (845) 434-5750 or click HERE.
Enter through Statler Entrance of Building H (located behind the Field House).
Free parking is available in P-Lot 2.

For more info, contact Michelle Hadden at (518) 867-4084 or MHadden@NYProblemGambling.org

###

